PECAN

Each year, we support many people in Southwark facing food insecurity, unemployment, and isolation through our projects. Our aim is to alleviate poverty in Southwark and help individuals move forward with dignity and hope.

This report highlights our impact, the outcomes we've achieved and the partnerships that make it possible. Through signposting, referrals and connecting with other organisations, we ensure people get the support they need. Our collaborations not only benefit our clients but they also help us grow, learn, and strengthen our approach.

A WORD FROM OUR CHAIR

I am delighted to have been appointed Chair of Trustees in January 2025. When I first heard about Pecan, I was inspired by the story of six churches coming together to make a difference by showing Jesus's love in their community in very practical ways. The ways Pecan helps have evolved over the years, but I love the fact that those strong values of Kindness, Belief and Hope continue to this day, 35 years later. My hope and prayer is that I can make a difference too!

2025 is Pecan's Year of Kindness. As you read this report, I hope that Kindness will jump off each page. There are so many great stories of the impact Pecan has had in beneficiaries' lives - we are delighted to share some of them with you. Do get in touch if you would like to know more or get more involved. I would like to publicly thank all staff, volunteers and trustees for their hard work and support to make this happen.

We invite you, our supporters, to continue to partner with us in this important task. THANK YOU for the impact you make through your support – whether volunteering, praying, financial, connections, referring, publicising or using our services. You are a key part of our team and together we can continue to alleviate all aspects of poverty in Southwark.

I hope you enjoy reading this report and reflecting on the difference you continue to make.

CHANGING LIVES THROUGH KINDNESS

At Pecan, kindness is at the heart of everything we do. From our first interaction with a beneficiary to their journey toward independence, we see the power of small acts of compassion shaping lives across Peckham and Southwark.

After the challenges of 2024, including the break-in, we have been overwhelmed by the kindness of those who stood with us. Regular donations from individuals, our community and organisations have reminded us we are not alone. 2025 is our Year of Kindness as a thank you to everyone who's helped raise our profile and shown that Pecan matters, and continues to in Southwark.

A woman with dark hair, wearing a purple jacket, is leaning over a table and sorting through a white plastic bag filled with food. She is smiling slightly. In the foreground, there are several fresh vegetables, including orange carrots and green limes. The background is slightly blurred, showing an indoor setting with wooden paneling and other people in the distance.

Pecan works with a highly diverse community, reflecting the rich demographic makeup of Southwark and the surrounding areas.

SOUTHWARK AS A BOROUGH

Peckham is a multicultural and vibrant area. By day, the heart of Peckham is a busy shopping district where you can get most cultural foods. And at night, it has a thriving economy where people come from far and wide for its restaurants and clubs. It's a world away from its depiction in the 80s and 90s comedies Only Fools and Horses or Desmond's.

The people who visit Pecan are a diverse range too. We see people born and bred in Southwark to others seeking asylum in the UK. Some residents have long term health challenges, others who are in work but struggling to make ends meet and those who are lonely and isolated. Below shows data from our food service Peckham Pantry, which reflects all five of our services.

CASE STUDY

PECKHAM PANTRY

Demographic Overview of Members

Pecan works with a highly diverse community, reflecting the rich demographic makeup of Southwark and the surrounding areas. In terms of ethnicity: 40% of our beneficiaries identify as White, making this the largest ethnic group we support. This is followed closely by Black, African, Caribbean, or Black British individuals, who make up 33% of our service users. People from Asian or Asian British backgrounds account for 7%, and those from Mixed or Multiple ethnic groups represent 10%. A smaller proportion identify as belonging to Other ethnic groups (3%), while ethnicity data is not recorded for 7% of beneficiaries. These figures illustrate our commitment to serving a wide and representative cross-section of the Southwark community.

The age profile of our beneficiaries demonstrates the breadth of individuals accessing our support. The largest proportion falls within the 25–29 age group, accounting for 19% of all beneficiaries, followed by those aged 45–49 at 16%. While the majority are concentrated between the ages of 25 and 49, we also work with significant numbers at both ends of the age spectrum. Young adults aged 16–24 represent 8% of those supported, and older adults aged 65 and over make up 7%, highlighting the organisation's ability to meet needs across all life stages.

In terms of gender identity, 73% of our beneficiaries identify as female and 26% as male. While smaller in number, individuals identifying as non-binary (1%), transgender, intersex and trans male (each below 1%) are also represented in our data. This reflects our inclusive approach to service delivery, ensuring that people of all gender identities feel welcome and supported.

OUR SERVICES

SUPPORTING THE COMMUNITY

Pecan delivers a range of services designed to empower individuals and build stronger communities. Our team of 36 dedicated staff members and 450 volunteers work across multiple projects, each addressing specific needs.

SOUTHWARK FOODBANK

Southwark Foodbank is proud to be part of the Trussell network of foodbanks. Our vision is a Southwark without the need for food banks, where everyone can afford the essentials.

Southwark Foodbank is one of Pecan's food services. We provide emergency food parcels for households referred to us by local agencies we are partnered with. Households receive at least enough food for three days and can also pick up pet food or any essential toiletries or cleaning products we have available. Through our partnership with The Felix Project, we are also able to provide clients with fresh produce. The majority of the food we give out is donated by local people, local businesses, schools, churches and other organisations. Each week, we provide food parcels to an average of 90 households. In 2024, we distributed 4,728 food parcels. This helped feed over 6,000 adults and over 3000 children.

Volunteers at Peckham Methodist Church for the Monday foodbank session

We have been part of a cohort of Trussell foodbanks, trialling ways to work more closely with people to address their underlying need for a food parcel. When people arrive at our foodbank, they receive a warm welcome and are offered refreshments and support to resolve the specific issue bringing them to the food bank. The issues can vary from debt, homelessness, unemployment and long-term sickness – or unexpected expenses leaving people with little or no money. At our foodbank sessions, we host partner organisations who have the knowledge and expertise to support those referred to us tackle the financial and housing issues presented. This work to improve our foodbank offer has seen great outcomes resulting in some households no longer needing to use the foodbank or at least reducing the number of times they visit. We are grateful for the ongoing support of the community, commitment of our wonderful volunteers and the generosity of the local churches who open their doors for us to host the foodbank sessions.

CASE STUDIES

SOUTHWARK FOODBANK

Client Support

Our Client Support Lead has signposting and supporting our clients who access the foodbank on issues relating to them being referred to us. She said “It's been great to see clients no longer needing to regularly access the foodbank, as our extended services have been a positive intervention. Our clients have been able to acquire white goods, supermarket vouchers and have their incomes maximised. For example, after visiting the food bank twice a month, a client was supported to apply for pension credit. The successful application increased their income by £81 a week as well as receiving a back payment of £2,000. The client has not returned to the food bank since.”

From August 2023 to June 2024, £221,514 worth of financial outcomes were secured for clients who accessed support from a Citizens Advice Advisor through the foodbank. These interventions reduce people's risk of returning to the foodbank.

FOODBANK COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Voices for Southwark is a community organising group speaking up to make life in Southwark easier and better for everyone. The group is made up of people who have been in touch with Southwark Foodbank and Pecan's projects. Members have previously run a campaign to make it easier for residents to access information and support with money matters.

“As a Southwark resident and member of the local community, I saw the purpose of the campaign and I’m proud to have my voice heard in a particular change in our environment.”

We have our main shop in Peckham Park Road, and the original Pantry at St.Lukes Church Peckham, which is open on Wednesdays from 11am-12pm. EMPLOYMENT SUPPORT

In our Employment Support project we deliver contracted programmes that support up to 1,000 people on their journey to employment – from Parent and Carers programmes to supporting people 50+ back into employment. The team runs various in-house training sessions and workshops, working with external partners to provide qualifications such as SIA, First Aid and Customer Service.

“Since being referred to Employment Support and the Families Programme, my caseworker has helped me put together a CV, which I used to apply for a position at the NHS. I wouldn’t have been able to do that myself. They also helped with my council tax account, which saved me money. But most of all, the constant reassurance and not give up.

I really appreciate the support, thank you.”

WOMEN'S SERVICE

The Southwark and Lewisham Women's Hubs offer safe, welcoming, one-stop-shop support for women affected by the criminal justice system and those seeking community and resources. We provide gender-specific and trauma-informed support, including one-to-one advocacy, group activities and training workshops.

Our hubs provide a safe space where women can make new social connections at our twice-weekly coffee mornings and monthly free hub lunches, and where they can build their confidence through a programme of creative workshops. Women using our services are signed up as 'hub members' – a community of regular faces and a peer support network fortified by our committed staff team.

TOGETHER

Our community hub is a warm, inclusive space at the heart of Peckham, bringing people together to build friendships, share skills, and find support. Evolving from Pecan's successful HOurBank project, the hub now offers a welcoming café, coffee mornings, arts and crafts, advice and guidance, wellbeing activities, and workshops. It also provides a crucial warm space, particularly for those over 50 – addressing growing issues of loneliness, isolation, and disconnection within our community.

One participant shared about our Women's History Month workshops, "Great opportunity to meet new people and be creative. Nice, welcoming, friendly environment." Another said, "Amazing to learn a new skill with flower arranging on a beautiful sunny day. Plus, great conversation and togetherness over creative crafting." These moments of joy, connection, and creativity are at the heart of what we do.

In response to needs identified during café sessions, and with the support of a Southwark Charities Grant, we are expanding our offer. From mid-2025, a dedicated Community Engagement Officer will provide personalised one-to-one support, helping older residents and regular clients access local services, engage in meaningful activities, and feel part of a caring community. This vital development will allow us to respond more effectively and sustainably to the challenges faced by vulnerable people, creating long-term, positive change in their lives.
